

Virginia Beach Community Resources

The following listing of community resources and agencies is provided to direct families to supports that could be needed in a variety of circumstances. See Resources - Office of Family & Community Engagement, Virginia Beach City Public Schools for a comprehensive listing of community resources.

This list is not all-inclusive and the existence of an organization on this list does not constitute a legal partnership with or promotion of that organization by the school division. Any cost for participation in programs not offered by the school division is borne by the parent/legal guardian of the student.
